

Inspiration, Education & Entertainment!

These are the goals of the Senate Records audio book program.

With our first audio book, "Gris & That" by Ed Grisamore, we take pride in sharing Ed's talent of capturing snapshots of southern life! It's a collection of great folksy columns from the popular, Grammy-nominated Georgia newspaper columnist.

From stories about driving a minivan, to the truth of "never too old to kiss momma" this audiobook is sure to become a southern classic.
